

Society Brand Clothes

Copyright 1913. Alfred Duder & Co.

Clothes That Fit Perfectly

Are a source of constant pleasure to the wearer - - making the world seem brighter in every little detail. This kind is the class we sell, and they have class too - - giving you that distinctive, well dressed appearance that you have seen and always admired. Let us take up this clothes question with you.

JUST RECEIVED A SHIPMENT OF THE NEW SATIN NECKWEAR—

SOLID COLORS—LARGE SHAPES—FIFTY CENTS EACH.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES

Brandon & Lawrence

The PALACE

Today From 6:00 to 11:00 P. M.

1. The Speed King.....Keystone
2. The Water Cure.....Thanhouser
3. The Marriage of Niatana.....Majestic

THE HOME OF GOOD PICTURES

CHILDREN UNDER 12 YEARS OF AGE, 5 CENTS

MISS WILSON A BRIDE

Washington, Nov. 25.—Washington is dressed in its gayest and has put on its best manners to see Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson become the thirteenth White House bride, when she marries Francis B. Sayre of New York in the East Room at 4:30 this afternoon. The officiating clergyman is Rev. Sylvester Beach of Princeton, N. J., the president's former pastor and a close personal friend of the entire Wilson family. While a special musical program had been arranged, the ceremony was simple because the Wilsons are all Presbyterians, and the marriage service of that church is very unpretentious.

The bride's attendants include her sisters, Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson, maid of honor, and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson. There are three other attendants, namely, Adeline Mitchell Scott, daughter of Prof. William B. Scott of Princeton; Miss Marjorie Brown, daughter of Mrs. Wilson's cousin, Col. E. T. Brown, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mary G. White of Baltimore, a college friend of Miss Jessie Wilson.

The announcement that Dr. Wilfred T. Grenfell, with whom Mr. Sayre did mission work in Labrador, would act as best man caused no surprise, as the future bridegroom has apprised his friends of that fact some time ago. Charles E. Hughes Jr., son of Justice Hughes of the Supreme Court, a classmate of Mr. Sayre at the Harvard law school, will be an usher.

The ushers are Dr. Gilbert Horax of Montclair, N. J., who was a classmate at Williams College in 1909, and is now at the John Hopkins Medical School; Benjamin Burton of New York City, who graduated in 1912 from Williams College, and Dr. Scoville Clark was a companion of Mr. Sayre's Labrador days and the two trailed northern Newfoundland together.

Mr. Hughes is the only masculine member of the wedding party who is well known in Washington, although Dr. Grenfell lectured here several years ago. He is much older than the bridegroom and is married.

The White House was turned into a floral bower for the wedding, the chief decorative scheme being carried out with chrysanthemums. The new bloom which has been named in honor of the bride, predominates the floral effects.

The bride entered the East Room on the arm of her father, being met at the specially arranged altar by Mr. Sayre. All of the relatives and friends of the Wilsons were here to attend the ceremony.

The bridal gown was made in New York. It is in soft, ivory white satin, with a three-yard court train the full width of the satin, with the foundation skirt in the prevailing silhouette, that is, close at the ankles, but with a slight crinkled effect about the hips. The skirt is slashed at the side seams in the back, so that its wearer can walk gracefully the entire length of the corridor from the State dining room to the improvised altar of bride roses and white chrysanthemums that extends across the large central window of the East Room. These slashes, however, are completely concealed by the train. The top of the gown is surplus draped in the satin, which is as soft as any of the French weaves, but of a purer white tone than is usually employed by the Paris couturiers. The wedding veil was of tulle held by the conventional orange blossoms.

There are several gowns of French creation in the trousseau, all of exquisite design, but simple lines.

The gifts probably will not be counted for two or three weeks, although a staff of special employees, guarded by detectives, has been opening boxes for the past fortnight. Many official gifts have been received, even from foreign countries, but these are all in accordance with the strictest official etiquette.

I am prepared to trim trees and level houses; also to do your painting. Have your work done now.
M. PIERCE
R. F. D. No. 5

WHEN IN NEED OF

CUT FLOWERS

PHONE 20

E. J. JENKINS

House Painter and Paper Hanger

COMPLETE LINE OF UP-TO-DATE SAMPLES OF WALL PAPER

I have opened up with a nice line of 1913 Wall Paper in the Campesia Building, one block west of the I. & G. N. depot.

I CAN SAVE YOU MONEY ON NEW WALL PAPER

— J. G. GREGG —

GIVE ME A TRIAL

PHONE 553

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Allegrettis candies, Wilson & Astin. J. T. Lawler went to Waco yesterday on business.

The Eagle will buy your old rags if they are clean.

DeLuxe fruit cakes, Wilson & Astin. Miss Mary Shelburne went to Somerville yesterday to visit relatives.

I sell feed of all kinds. Will save you money. Phone 112.

Mrs. Fred Winter went to Hempstead yesterday to visit relatives.

Allegrettis candies, Wilson & Astin.

Mrs. R. J. Williams of Mart, is visiting relatives in this city.

Cross & Blackwell's grated cheese, Wilson & Astin.

Mrs. J. H. Jackson arrived yesterday from Austin to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Conlee.

Buy your feed from Tucker, the ferryman. Phon 112.

Henry Roberts and Matt Riordan returned from Cuero where they ended the Turkey Trot.

Rohde Reynolds returned to Houston yesterday after a short visit to relatives in this city.

Mrs. Annie Byrd Whaling returned to her home in Houston yesterday after a short visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Walker of Austin went to Dallas yesterday after a visit to their son, M. P. Walker and family of this city.

Mrs. Eustace Taylor returned to her home in Galveston yesterday after a pleasant visit to her mother and sister of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Seale of Mumfords, are in the city visiting Mr. Seale's brother, H. B. Seale and family, and other relatives.

A. H. Keller and sister, Miss A. M. Keller, returned from a visit to relatives in New Baden yesterday. They were accompanied home by J. F. Keller of LeRoy who will be their guest for a few days.

McLarren's pimento cheese, McLaren's deviled cheese, McLaren's roquefort cheese, McLaren's nippy cheese, McLaren's imperial cheese, Wilson & Astin.

HOTEL BRYAN ARRIVALS

Billy Baskette, Chicago.
Dorothy Vaughn, Chicago.
G. Linghitt, Houston.
C. Browning, Cincinnati, O.
R. Cawthon, Houston.
B. Samuels, New York.
M. G. Steele, Navasota.
W. F. Wilson, Austin.
A. H. Stachle, St. Louis.
E. C. Blake, Houston.
G. B. Clarke, Chicago.
M. S. Phillips, Waco.
Gus Meyers, Houston.
L. Longley, St. Louis.
L. Hunt, Houston.
A. Donaldson, Gause.
John Masters, Houston.
J. Jacobs, Houston.
R. E. Payne, Houston.
H. Holzhaue, Dallas.
F. W. Conat, Houston.
E. C. Ward, Houston.
O. C. Trice, Kansas City.
T. H. Brooks, Somerville.
A. C. Robinson, Waco.
H. Vaughan, New Orleans.
E. I. Brophy, Austin.
J. M. Boyd, Cincinnati.
Bertha Robinson, San Antonio.
B. C. Calvin, Fort Worth.
B. H. Zuber, St. Louis.

A. S. ADAMS

CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR

Office, City Hall Phone 424

DR. W. S. SMITH,

(of Marlin)

OSTEOPATH

AT BRYAN HOTEL

Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays

Given Away

the Indiana and Ohio

the cyclone at Omaha,

Mississippi overflow and the disasters of the year 1913, thousands of

FREE SEWING MACHINES

were destroyed and new machines given away without cost to holders of The FREE insurance policy.

See Pictures in our Windows

Buy The FREE Sewing Machine and secure policy which protects the machine against loss by flood, tornado, cyclone, fire, breakage or any other cause. The only insured machine.

WE SELL IT

E. F. PARKS

A BIG SALE OF PATTERN HATS and DRESSES

You Will Regret It if You Miss Our Special Pattern Hat and Dress Sale for Monday and Tuesday

Every Pattern Hat we have will be sold at exactly ONE-HALF

All those beautiful Wool Dresses, made up in the very latest styles and materials, your choice Monday and Tuesday less 33 1-3

EVERYTHING WE SHOW IS NEW

EUGENE EDGE

ON THE CORNER

HARVEY HAPPENINGS

The Harvey people started Thanksgiving week by being thankful for the nice rain they received Saturday and Sunday.

The entire community sympathizes with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Yardley in the loss of their home by fire, which occurred last Thursday at 1:30 p. m. We understand Mr. Yardley contemplates rebuilding real soon.

Mr. Albert Keith spent several days at his old home in Grimes County last week.

Mrs. Rush has sold her farm to Morris Tatum and is moving to Liberty County.

Mrs. Caroline Jones is seriously ill. Mrs. I. B. Todd attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Burkhalter at Wellborn Thursday.

A number of people attended the dog and pony show in Bryan and reported an enjoyable time.

—Correspondent.

Nov. 24, 1913.

MRS. E. PANKHURST AND THE SOCIAL EVIL

New York, Nov. 25.—The first of a series of public meetings, in which great social and economic wrongs are to be discussed with daring freedom, takes place at the Eltinge theatre this afternoon. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, British militant suffragette is one of the principal speakers. Since the writings of her daughter, Christabel Pankhurst, have been recently suppressed in England, the views to be advanced by the militant leader are naturally of interest.